EMPTY ROOMS ON LINER SONOMA

Owing to the large number of people who were able to get away on the Mongolia for San Francisco the Sonoma was not crowded on leaving port yesterday, there being some empty cabins. The Oceanic liner arrived in port early yesterday morning after a good passage from Sydney, via Auckland and Pago Pago.

Among her through passengers was Col. Jack Coffee, well known here as the man who installed the Gamewell police call box system.

Prominent among the departing passengers was Alexander Young, who goes to join his family on the Coast.

Dr. E. L. Hutchinson, the well known dentist, also left for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hunt, after spending a three weeks' honeymoon at the Young Hotel, return to Williams, Grand Canyon, where Mr. Hunt will resume his duties for the Santa Fe railway.

Miss Evelyn Wile, who has been assisting Bishop Rastarick at Iolani College, left for New York where she will attend the Deaconess school.

John S. Ross, representative of the A. and A. steamship line, left for San Francisco.

A. L. Gage, a commercial traveller who has been here for about six weeks, was also a departing passenger.

Mrs. Lorrin Andrews goes to spend a few months on the mainland.

The Fearless, being out of commission the tug Charles Counselman was used in swinging around the stern of the Sonoma as she backed out of her berth at the Oceanic wharf. The Fearless usually does the work easily but the Counselman had a tough job of it.

STOWAWAY HAD VERY HARD LUCK

Thomas Marshall, a few weeks ago, was an easy going sailor aboard a British merchantman. At Sydney he made up his mind to give up the life of the sea and get work on land. But in Australia deserters from ships are arrested and compelled to return to their vessels. So Marshall decided to come to the United States. He managed to stow away on the Sonoma and keep out of sight until after the vessel had cleared from Auckland harbor. On arrival here the Inspector of Immigration would not let him land. So Marshall was taken to the police station and will be held there until he can be put aboard the Sierra and started back to the Colonies on Thursday. This may not end his troubles, for the law also deals with stowaways in Australia and if the ship he deserted from is there when the Sierra arrives he will have to resume his duties on board of her unless sent to jail for the other offence.

LEGGETT IS TO TOW LOG RAFTS

Three of the biggest log rafts ever constructed on this Coast are to be towed to this port from Puget Sound by the steamer Francis H. Leggett. The Leggett is on her way from Midway Island to this Coast and upon arriving here will be despatched north to tow the rafts to this port. One of the rafts has been constructed at Stella, Wash., by the Robertson Raft Company and is said to be the largest craft of its kind ever constructed. The raft is composed of huge piles bound together with iron chains. The raft is cigar-shaped and is over 500 feet in length. In the past a complaint has gone up from seafaring men against the practice of towing log rafts. Steps have been taken to have Congress legislate on the matter, but so far nothing has been done. The great fear is that the rafts will go to pieces at sea and menace all shipping interests.—Examiner.

Big Sugar Cargo Arrives.

The steamer California arrived at New York yesterday with 8,000 tons of Hawaiian sugar. The prevailing high price of sugar made her arrival at this time very advantageous to the local sugar factors.

YOUNG CHRYSTAL ON WAY HOME

Among the passengers on the Sonoma yesterday was Leo Chrystal, a young brother of Miss Anita Chrystal, who is well known in local society circles. Young Chrystal left home over a year ago. He is heir to a large estate at Monterey and quite a search was made for him. He was traced to Honolulu where it was learned that he had left for New Zealand with the Sanford Theatrical Company. Now he is returning home at the request of his folks. During a portion of the time he was in Honolulu he was employed as a bell boy at the Young Hotel.

Commandatore Boni, the famous archaeologist of the Roman Forum, has given an interesting clue to his impressions of that treasure house of Latin antiquity. According to him it was a cemetery long before it was a forum and the tombs were packed so close together that no trace of a pathway, however narrow, could be found. The Via Sacra was probably made over the tombs. Romulus, Signor Boni thinks, was born on a soil peopled with the dead for a thousand years before his birth, and the wolf only existed in the legends left by his ancestors.

BALANCE SHEET OF THE NATION

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Secretary Shaw to-day gave out a statement showing the comparison between the estimates which he submitted to Congress in his last annual report and the actual receipts and disbursements during the fiscal year, from which it appears that the actual surplus is only about three-fourths of a million dollars less than the estimated surplus, when account is taken only of expenditures which were considered in submitting the estimate.

In the estimate submitted to Congress no account was taken of possible expenditures in securing the right of way for the isthmian canal, nor of the loan of $4,000,000 to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company. The estimate was based on the then existing laws. These were subsequently modified by the ratification of the reciprocity treaty with Cuba. The Secretary calls attention to the fact that the surplus would have been several millions in excess of his estimate but for the reciprocity arrangement with Cuba, which reduced the revenues from $6,000,000 to $3,000,000.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, the total receipts were $541,155,745, as against the Secretary's estimate of $530,000,000. The expenditures were $527,939,071, against the estimate of $516,000,000. The expenditures are exclusive of $54,000,000 paid on account of the Panama canal and the loan to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The available cash on June 30, 1904, amounts to $168,965,872. As compared with the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, the figures show increase and decreases in receipts as follows: Customs, decrease, $21,823,325; internal revenue, increase, $2,302,440; miscellaneous increase, $1,802,014.

The civil and miscellaneous expenditures for the year just ended exceed those for the year 1903, including the payments on account of the Panama canal purchase and the St. Louis Exposition loan by $67,813,662. The expenditures on account of the War Department were $3,211,897 less than for 1903, and the expenditures on account of the Navy were $20,060,271 greater than for 1903.
